

Dear Future Third Grade Families,

The third grade teachers have assembled a summer packet to help students prepare themselves for beginning third grade. This packet will help you review skills taught in second grade that will be necessary for a successful start in September. Also included is the general supply list for the upcoming school year, your child's teacher may also send an additional supply list home over the summer asking for class specific materials.

Below is a list of summer reading titles that have been chosen by the third grade teachers. These books are available at your local library and bookstores. Your child is expected to read one of these books this summer.

- Mummies in the Morning- Mary Pope Osborne (limited quantities available to borrow)
- Jigsaw Jones, The Case of the Spooky Sleepover- James Preller
- Cam Jansen The Summer Camp Mysteries-Davis A. Adler
- Officer Spence Makes No Sense- Dan Gutman
- How to Be Cool in Third Grade- Betsey Duffy

After your child has read one of the above books they are to complete 2 of the activities/projects below. (Directions on the following page) These projects should be bought in and be ready to share on the first day of school.

1. Create a diorama
2. Create a movie poster
3. Create a book jacket
4. Write an e-mail
5. Character bag
